From Tuesday November 17, to Saturday November 21, 1778.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 18th Day of November, 1778,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 19th Day of August last, for prohibiting the Exporting out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder, Saltpetre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire on the 23d of this instant November: And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer, except in those Cases where (for the Benefit and Advantage of Trade, and for the Use and Defence of Ships trading to Foreign Parts, and of the Transports and Victualling Vessels employed in His Majesty's Service) His Majesty, by His several Orders in Council of the 13th and 27th of October, and of the 6th and 22d of November, 1775, of the 5th and 19th of February, and the 23d of August and 25th of September, 1776, of the 16th of April, the 13th of August, and the 3d and 10th of October, 1777, of the 19th of June, the 7th and 26th of August, and the 10th of September last, has thought proper to permit and allow the Exportation of, and carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder, Saltpetre, Arms and Ammunition, under certain Conditions and Restrictions mentioned in the said Orders: His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Person or Persons whomsoever (except the Master-General, Lieutenant-General, or Principal Officers of the Ordnance, for His Majesty's Service) do, at any Time during the Space of Three Months, to commence from the said 23d Day of this instant November, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder, Saltpetre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder, Saltpetre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on Board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, except in the Cases comprized within the aforementioned Orders in Council, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the 29th Year of His late Majesty's Reign, entituled, "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Saltpetre, and to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the

" Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms and Ammunition; and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Saltpetre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition."— And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 11th Day of November, 1778,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Lord Viscount Weymouth, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hath laid before this Board an Extract of a Letter from Sir William Hamilton, His Majesty's Envoy at Naples, giving Information, That that Government, justly alarmed by the Accounts of the Plague raging violently at Smyrna, and in several Islands of the Archipelago, and of it's having passed Salonica, have augmented their Quarantine, and taken other Precautions to prevent it's coming into that Kingdom; His Majesty this Day took the same into Consideration; and although it appeared that a Quarantine of Forty Days is at this Time subsisting, by Orders of this Board, upon all Ships and Vessels coming from or through the Mediterranean, (except those coming directly from any of the Ports of the Kingdom of Spain, Minorca or Gibraltar;) yet His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, judges it necessary, upon this Occasion, to cause the said Orders to be enforced and extended; and to that End, His Majesty, with the Advice aforesaid, doth hereby order, require and command, that the said Quarantine be enforced; and that all the Officers, appointed for the Service of Quarantine, do use their utmost Care and Diligence in causing the several Rules and Regulations established for the due Performance of Quarantine, to be punctually and strictly observed and carried into Execution: And His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, is further pleased to order, require and command, that all Ships and Vessels whatsoever, coming from any of the Ports of the Kingdom of Spain within the Mediterranean, or from Minorca or Gibraltar, and all Goods and Merchandizes on Board the same, [that are already arrived, or that shall hereafter arrive in any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or of the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark or Man, do make their Quarantine

[Price Seven-Pence.]

Quarantine for Forty Days; and do likewise strictly conform themselves, in all Respects, to the Rules and Regulations now in Force and required to be observed by Ships and Vessels subject to Quarantine: And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the Time being of the said respective Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 23d of October, 1778,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the 25th Day of October 1776, to promise and declare, That the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed, to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who should, on or before the 31st of December then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board such Tenders as should be employed for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the 8th Day of November, 1776, to promise and declare, That a Reward of Two Pounds for every Able, and Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed, to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might secrete themselves, that so such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's said Service, by any of His Majesty's Sea-Officers employed for raising Men, on or before the 31st Day of December, 1776. And whereas His Majesty was likewise pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the 15th Day of August 1777, to promise and declare, That every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should voluntarily enter himself to serve on Board any of His Majesty's Ships, on or before the 31st Day of October then next, should receive, as of His Majesty's Royal Bounty, the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, to be paid in Manner thereby directed. And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations, for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards, hath been prolonged and extended to the 31st Day of this instant October; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Rewards should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy-Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards be prolonged and extended from the said 31st Day of this instant October to the 31st Day of December next, inclusive. — Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

G. Chetwynd.

Naples, October 13. The Accounts of the Plague begin to be less alarming; the Venetians have already diminished their Quarantines.

Turin, October 28. Their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Piemont, and the Duke and Dutchess of Chablais, have quitted Stupiniggi, and are gone to Montcalier.

St. James's, November 17, 1778.

WEYMOUTH.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the said Mrs. Watson doth hereby promise a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as before excepted;) to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

St. James's, November 14, 1778.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to His Majesty, That, on the 5th and 9th of October last, a Number of Persons, with their Faces blacked, or Grapes over them, or otherwise disguised, to the Number of 80 or 100, with Fire Arms, Swords, and other offensive Weapons, did riotously and tumultuously assemble themselves on the High Road, and upon the uninclosed Part of the Link, in the Parish of Great Malvern in the County of Worcester, to the great Terror of the Passengers on that Road, and Persons in that Neighbourhood; and did then and there by Force and Violence cut down, burn and maliciously destroy all the Posts, Gates, and Rails, set up for the Purpose of inclosing that Part of the said Link which lies in the Parish of Leigh in the said County of Worcester, by Virtue of an Act of Parliament obtained for that Purpose; menacing Destruction to all that opposed them; and did also burn down a Barn; and one of them did wilfully and maliciously fire at a Person on the Road:

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Offences, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of these Offenders, (excepting the principal Proposer and Adviser of this mischievous Plan) who will surrender himself, within Three Months from the Date hereof, before any Magistrate in the County of Worcester, or in any neighbouring County, or before any Magistrate in the County of Middlesex, or City and Liberty of Westminster, and give such Information of this outrageous Offence, so that Two or more of his Accomplices may be convicted of the same.

WEYMOUTH.

And, as a farther Encouragement to such Person to surrender himself an Evidence as aforesaid, the Proprietors of those Lands will give to the Person so surrendering the Sum of FIFTY POUNDS, on Conviction of Two or more of his Accomplices; and to any other Person not concerned in the said Offences making such Discovery, the Sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, on such Conviction, to be paid by Mr. Lyttleton, Attorney, in Worcester.

St. James's, November 14, 1778.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that the following Houses and other Buildings in the Parish of West Lulworth in the County of Dorset have been several Times wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some Person or Persons unknown; that is to say, on the 11th Day of September last the House and Shop belonging to Elizabeth Randall, and all the Stock in Trade consumed; on the 11th of October last the House of Mary Gregory, and Barn filled with Corn consumed; on the 12th of the same Month the House of Ann Rumsey, Barn filled with Corn, two Hay Ricks, and Smith's Shop, consumed; on the 5th of November last the Malt House and Kiln of William Randall; on the 8th of November another House belonging to Ann Rumsey, and two Houses belonging to Samuel Bagwell: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in the said Offences, or any of them, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of the Offenders, (except the Person or Persons who actually set Fire to the said Houses and other Buildings) who shall discover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

WEYMOUTH.

And, as a farther Encouragement, Thomas Weld, Esq. doth hereby promise a Reward of THIRTY POUNDS, and the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Parish of West Lulworth aforesaid do promise a Reward of TWENTY POUNDS, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as before excepted;) the said Rewards to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.
